

“Rights to an Interpreter” card

My name is: _____ I live at: _____ I do not speak English. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Code of 1964, I have a right to a qualified interpreter that speaks my language before I answer any questions.	My name is: _____ I live at: _____ I do not speak English. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Code of 1964, I have a right to a qualified interpreter that speaks my language before I answer any questions
My name is: _____ I live at: _____ I do not speak English. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Code of 1964, I have a right to a qualified interpreter that speaks my language before I answer any questions	My name is: _____ I live at: _____ I do not speak English. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Code of 1964, I have a right to a qualified interpreter that speaks my language before I answer any questions
My name is: _____ I live at: _____ I do not speak English. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Code of 1964, I have a right to a qualified interpreter that speaks my language before I answer any questions	My name is: _____ I live at: _____ I do not speak English. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Code of 1964, I have a right to a qualified interpreter that speaks my language before I answer any questions
My name is: _____ I live at: _____ I do not speak English. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Code of 1964, I have a right to a qualified interpreter that speaks my language before I answer any questions	My name is: _____ I live at: _____ I do not speak English. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Code of 1964, I have a right to a qualified interpreter that speaks my language before I answer any questions